Policy:

To ensure the necessary parties are informed in advance about street closures for events, and the proper precautions are used.

Procedure

The following steps must be taken when a request is made to have a street blockaded for a particular event:

1. Street blockade request must go to the Regular Council Meeting and be approved by Council.
2. After the request has been passed by Council, the Public Works Department must be notified as to the date, time, and street location, so that they may provide the necessary barricade.
3. The Fire Department, R.C.M.P., and Ambulance must be notified as to the event, the date, time, and street location of the approved blockade.
